“Life begins simply.

But living takes more time,

more energy,

more love.

Living requires people to walk through doors —

to create,

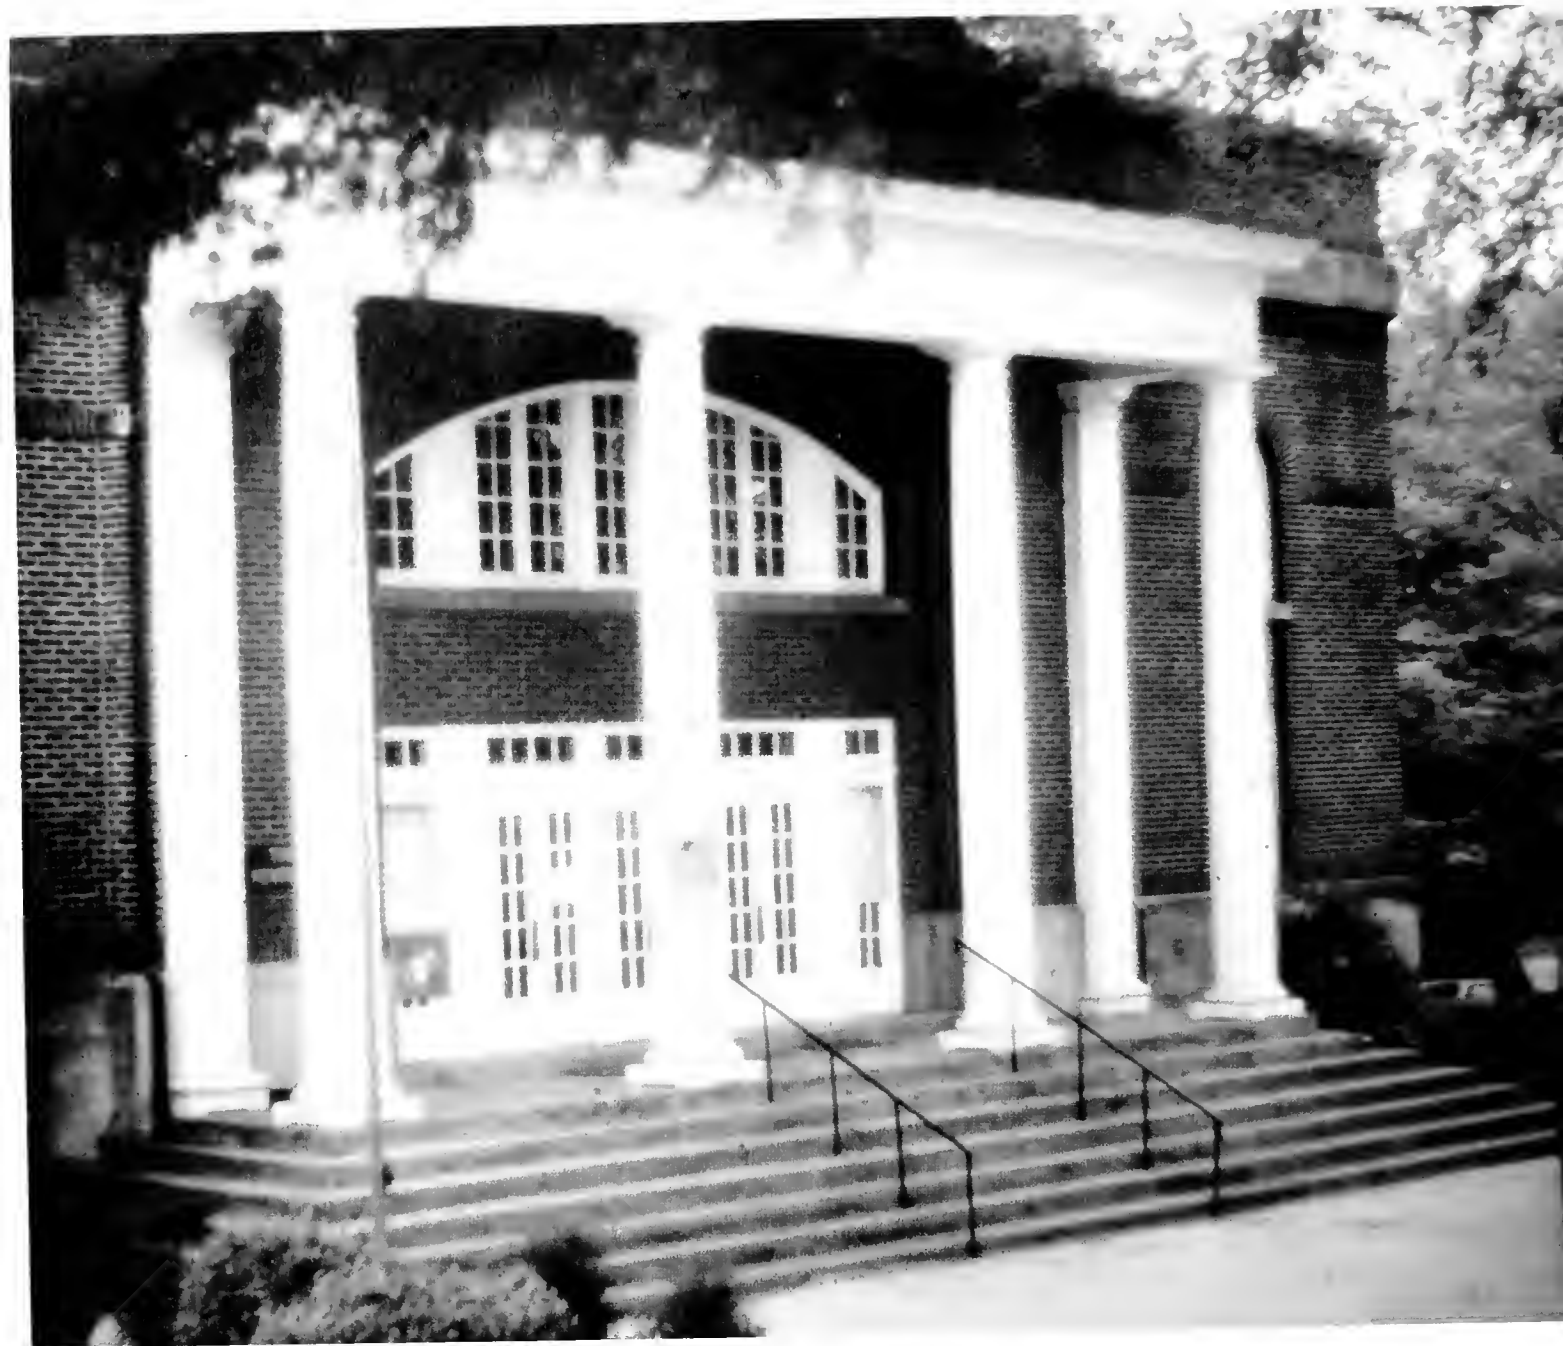

and think

and dare to learn.

And the door-rattle punctuates
The Poetry of living individuals.”

— “The Poem Wesleyan”

CREATORS

There is one thing we firmly believe — we are all poets.
Not all of us make a poem in the same way —
Not all of the poems made are good.
But each of us has a path to make,
And a way to make it —
And, ultimately, the poem we live is the result.
